

Questions to Consider:

1. In what ways do you struggle to find contentment in what God has for you regarding your possessions as well as your circumstances?
2. In what areas do you struggle with trusting God and His sovereignty and goodness in your life?
3. How can you grow in your discipline of pursuing godliness?
4. How are you tempted to put your hope and security in your financial provisions? How does God need to transform you in this area?
5. In what ways does God need to grow you in laying up treasures in heaven?